

Rakesh Singh,
(Master Mariner, M.A., LLB, LLM)

Founder and Managing Director
A-Sree group of companies
Secretary, ICC Shipping
Association

An alumnus of T. S. Rajendra (1979-80 batch) with a sailing experience of about 15 years, followed by about 30 years of service ashore in the maritime sector. He is a Master Mariner who also holds a Master's degree in Law and Political Science. His legal specialization lies in commercial and international laws relating to maritime trade.

He established his own ship-owning and operating company in 2003 and has extensive experience operating vessels on the Indian coast and Inland waterways.

He has been serving the industry as the Secretary of the ICC Shipping Association (a representative body of Indian coastal ship owners/operators) since 2015 and also represents ICCSA on the Technical Advisory Committee of the Indian Register of Shipping.

He is one of the leading consultants on marine insurance and is associated with the London Maritime Arbitrators Association. He is attached to various institutions as a guest lecturer on maritime-related subjects. In his spare time, he also teaches marine insurance to candidates preparing for the certificate of competency. He is a regular invitee on media channels for his views on the maritime sector.