"The Directorate General of Shipping functions under the Ministry of Ports, Shipping and Waterways and is responsible for the regulation and administration of shipping and maritime activities in the country.

The Vigilance function in DG Shipping is guided by the principles of absolute integrity and aims to ensure accountability and transparency in all official dealings. In line with Central Vigilance Commission guidelines, vigilance primarily focuses on preventive measures and system improvement.

The objective of vigilance is to enhance the overall efficiency and effectiveness of the organization by strengthening processes and minimizing the scope for irregularities. The vigilance outlook is to check and prevent corrupt and improper practices through monitoring, inspections, and timely corrective action.

All officers and staff are expected to maintain integrity and impartiality in the discharge of their duties.

If anyone has any complaint, grievance, or information relating to corrupt or improper practices, the same may be reported directly to me at cvo.dgs@nic.in or on my official mobile number.

Thank you."
