Subject: Mark sheet for 2nd Mate (FG) (DNS leading to B.Sc Course)-reg.

Sir,

Reference your letter No. IMU/E&A/DG Shipping/Change of Procedure/2016 dated 22.01.2016 on the subject, attention is invited to the Directorate's letter of even no. dated 08.01.2016, it is reiterated that the examination for Certificate of Competency (CoC) are carried out in accordance with MS (STCW) Rules 2014 and the guidance as per the Training Examination and Assessment Programme (TEAP) Manual.

2. Taking into consideration the provisions under the stated rules and the process followed for examination the results of examinees will be forwarded the performance report as per enclosed sheet.

3. Noting the fact that the Indian Maritime University (IMU) is conducting B.Sc Nautical Science degree programme wherein different subjects are being allocated to different semesters. It will not be correct on the part of the DGS to co-relate the examinations subjects with the course code. The university may co-relate performance of the examination subjects with the related code and apprise the student about his performance as appropriate.

4. The Directorate has initiated the online process for assessment, examination, result declaration and even the grant of CoC. In addition to the information that will be provided as mentioned in the letter of even no, dated 08.01.2016, every seafarer who will qualify for CoC will also be give a performance review sheet of his performance which may be utilized at your end for necessary action and grant of B.Sc. Nautical degree.

5. In order to implement the above, every CoC issued for the grade of 2nd Mate (FG) will be accompanied by a performance review sheet duly approved by the Chief Examiner, w.e.f 1st June, 2016.

6. This issues with the approval of the Nautical Adviser to the GoI & Chief Examiner of Master & Mates.

Yours faithfully,

(Capt. R.K.Muduli)
